BRITISH DIRIGIBLE ON THE LAST HALF OF RETURN FLIGHT

R-34 600 Miles East of St. John's This Morning on Way to England.

IN TOUCH WITH LONDON

Early Message to Newfoundland Indicated Airship Was Near Azores.

LONDON, July 11.-The dirigible, R-34, speeding eastward across the Atlantic, at 12.10 o'clock, Greenwich time, to-day (8.10 A. M. New York time), had reached 46 degrees north latitude, 29 degrees 50 minutes west longitude, approximately 1,500 miles from her starting point, and 600 miles east of St. John's, N. F.

Up to the time of her report at 12.11 o'clock, the R-34 had consumed 1,683 gallons of gasoline, leaving her with 3,627 gullons still in her tanks. This was taken to indicate that the dirigible was being aided by the wind.

Earlier advices reported that in the first twenty-lour hours of her return flight from Mineola, the R-34 covered
